

Background reading.

There is a large amount of background material published in books, papers and on the web. It will be useful in gaining a good grade in the final exam and in your future careers.

A minimum list of sources you should think of accessing is:

Software Engineering:

- Pressman, Software Engineering ISBN 0-07-70793601
 - or an equivalent general text eg Somerville
- Hall E.M Managing Risk , SEI publishing isbn0-201-25592-8
- Charette N.R Managing the risks in Information Systems &Technology Acad. Press Advances in Computers vol 44.
- Anything by Barry Boehm

Management:

- Software Leadership, by Murray Cantor, Peason publishing ISBN 0-201-79944-1

On QA:

- Software Quality Assurance, D.Galin Pearson/ AW ISBN 0201 70945 7

Websites

- SEI for USA perspective
- ESI for euro perspective
- Office of Govt Computing for UK perspective
- ISO and TickIT for standards
- Sunset.usc.edu for Barry Boehm and other good stuff.